Concurrent League Rule, adopted as of Spring 2015 Season:

Players registered with RPYB may not also be registered with another concurrent recreational baseball league (such as Little League, other Pony league, etc) at any point in the season. Once RPYB learns of a player in another recreational league concurrent to the RPYB schedule, RPYB will immediately notify the player's parents with notification of this rule. If the dual registrations are discovered prior to the RPYB draft (Pinto and above) or team placement (Shetland), the parents will be given an opportunity to choose between the leagues with a full refund available should they leave RPYB. Parents choosing to remain with RPYB must immediately notify the other league of their cancellation of registration. RPYB may request documentation of the registration cancellation at its discretion. Parents choosing to not participate in RPYB will be refunded their paid registration fees as long as the registration is canceled prior to the player's placement on a team. If the dual registration is discovered after placement on a RPYB team, parents electing to leave RPYB will receive no refund. Parents will have 48 hours from RPYB notification, or before placement on a team (whichever comes first) to inform RPYB of their decision. Failure to respond to the RPYB contact by the deadline will result in removal from RPYB.

Volunteer Deposit

I agree to participate as a volunteer in Rocklin Pony Baseball. A $200 deposit will be collected per child (up to $400 per family) and held until the completion of all the volunteer hours.

This season teams (3 to 4) will be assigned a week to cover the snack bar. The team parents of the assigned teams will get together and made a schedule for the families to work.
